

San Francisco Redevelopment Agency Certificate of Preference Search Request

A Certificate of Preference is a document issued by the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency ("agency") to displaced residents and businesses in the 1960's when the Agency was implementing its federally-funded urban renewal program. The San Francisco Redevelopment Agency is not the Housing Authority, nor does the Agency administer the Section 8 program.

No other entity or organization is authorized to check eligibility for a Certificate of Preference, or to grant a Certificate of Preference.

There are always a large number of requests, and searches are conducted in the order they're received. Incomplete information, misspelled names, and wrong addresses can delay the results of a search.
